

I have come to rely on XM's traffic information. I use it over the local stations because the traffic information on XM is more frequent and more thorough. This is one of the reasons I have decided to subscribe to XM. I currently pay for such a service and do not feel the government should limit what information I should receive.